AWARD

Sarvshri Radha Kishan, Bhoop Singh, Ram Lakhan, Ram Chander and Ved Parkash, were retrenched from service by the management of M/s Ellora Industries, Mehrauli Road, Gurgaon. Opportunity of re-employment to which they were entitled under the law was not offered to them. This gave rise to an industrial dispute and the Governor of Haryana, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 referred the following dispute to the Court for adjudication,—vide Government Gazette Notification No. ID/GG/114-68/25126, dated 7th October, 1968.

Whether the action of the management in making new recruitments without offering any opportunity of re-employment to the retrenched, namely, Sarvshri Radha Kishan, Bhoop Singh, Ram Lakhan, Ram Chander, and Ved Parkash was justified and in order? If not, to what relief are they entitled?

On receipt of the reference usual notices were issued to the parties in response to which a statement of claim was filed on behalf of the workmen and the management filed their written statement. It was pleaded on behalf of the management that Sarvshri Radha Kishan, and Bhoop Singh had submitted resignations of their own accord during the currency of notice period, thereby forgoing their claims for re-employment in the respondent factory under the provisions of Industrial Disputes Act. As regards Shri Ram Lakhan it was pleaded that he too had resigned and give up his claim for re-employment. As regards Sarvshri Ram Chander and Ved Parkash claimants it was pleaded that they were served with notices offering them opportunity for re-employment in accordance with the provisions of Industrial Disputes Act but they did not report for duty within the time prescribed under the said Act and therefore they had forfeited their claim for re-employment.

Shri C. B. Kaushik who represented the workmen also stated that Sarvshri Radha Kishan, Bhoop Singh, Ram Lakhan and Ram Chander claimants were not interested in re-employment. As regards Ved Parkash, it is submitted that he too had given no instructions and it is therefore not possible to proceed further in this case for want of instructions. In view of statement of the representative of the workmen, it is held that the action of the management in not taking the retrenched workmen named above into service was justified and they are not entitled to any relief.
